

Volume XVIII Number 38 Hometown Newspaper for Glen Cove, Sea Cliff, Glen Head, Glenwood and Brookville Week of 5/28/09 75¢

Robbery at Emigrant Bank in Sea Cliff

by Carol Griffin

A robbery took place at Emigrant Savings Bank located in the shopping plaza at the corner of Downing and Glen Cove Avenues on Thursday, May 21 at about 12:15pm.

ROBBERY continued on page 11

City Adopts First Master Plan in Over 50 Years

At the City Council Meeting of May 26, 2009 Mayor Ralph V. Suozzi and the Glen Cove City Council made history when they officially adopted the first Master Plan for Glen Cove in over fifty years. This historic step is the culmination of a process that began when Mayor Ralph V. Suozzi took office in 2006, launching a comprehensive planning effort to create a vision for the future of Glen Cove.

MASTER PLAN continued on page 11

Nassau County 6th Precinct patrol cars and a crime scene vehicle are seen outside Sea Cliff's Emigrant Saving Bank while the robbery investigation is underway. (photo by Carol Griffin)

The Gold Coast celebrates memorial day. (photo by Peter T. Budraitis)

What Memorial Day Means to Me

Patrick Labella and Jessica Gianfortune, 2009 essay contest winners. (photo by Milkenia B. Horton)

A long-standing tradition in the Village of Sea Cliff has been to invite Sea Cliff School Elementary students to write essays on, "What Memorial Day means to me." This year Jessica Gianfortune and Patrick Labella were chosen as having written the best essays. They were special guests at the Memorial Day parade and were invited to read their essays at the closing ceremonies in Central Park.

See their essays page 11.

INSIDE- Full color center-spread of area Memorial Day parade photos! Color sponsored by... GLY Religious Books and Gifts 34 School Street, Glen Cove (516) 656-0330